

Printing Impressions Magazine features Hopkins Printing

Columbus, OH (November 16, 2011) – Hopkins Printing is currently featured in the November issue of Printing Impressions magazine in the article “Printing’s Best Workplaces: The Cream of the Crop.” Hopkins, known for continuous improvement and employee satisfaction, is included in the article for its success as an ESOP company, cross-training regimen and employee recognition practices.

Printing companies highlighted in the article were chosen from the Print Industries of America’s 2010 Best Workplaces in the Americas award selections. Additional companies featured in the article include, Suttle-Strauss, Vox Printing, HardingPoorman Group, Malloy Inc., Edwards Brothers and The Castle Press. As leading innovators in the industry, each company provides inspiration and ideas for attracting and keeping first-rate employees. The 2011 PIA Best Workplaces in the Americas will be announced later this month.

“We’re honored to be featured with such innovative and creative companies from across the country,” said Michelle Waterhouse, HR Director Hopkins Printing.
